TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

IRELAND.

The Unruly People Dislike to Submit, But Must Do So.

Dublin, 26.—Hundreds of tenant farmers marched into Tuam, to-day, to get their readjustment of rent notices completed. Cheers were given for the land act. Arrangements are making to hold Land League meetings in every Catholic chapel in Roscommon on Sunday, and convert the branches into tenants branch defence associations.

Two more arrests were made in Kilkenny. The bailiff's son was shot in Balinamore.

In the number of the United Ireland, League organ, published to-day, the leader column will be surrounded with mourning, but will be blank, with the words "Freedom of the press, 1881," printed across them.

The statement of Archbishop McCabe, suspended priest, being a Land Leaguer is denied.

At the opening of the new market by the lord mayor, groans and hisses and an organized demonstration in revenge for his rejection of Gray's motion to confer the freedom of the city upon Parnell and Dillon, prevented him from being here.

The rumor that the resignation of Earl Cowper as lord lieutenant of Ireland has been revived.

Six arrests have been made to-day under the Coercion act, including the president of the Kilkenny branch Land League. Suspects in Galway Jail passed a resolution approving the "no rent" manifesto.

Every day brings fresh evidences of the breaking up of the League influence.

The League in Tipperary has simply broken to pieces.

Since Archbishop Crooke's letter, seventy farmers of that county have already applied for a revision of their rent under the land act.

There are many applicants from Kerry, also. The government believes that they have scotched the agitation, but they will not desert till they have killed the Ladies' League, which some have thought might keep the movement alive if carried on under the direction of members of the League executive in England.

The government, however, apprehends no danger in that direction. Dr. Kerry's arrest was hardly aimed at the ladies as he was the ladies' particular adviser.

They are now likely to think that over they may be arrested. All that the government now fears is that the League may be driven back into a secret organization. The officials are certainly in great fear of something. A rising they fear, but incendiarism, dynamite and assassination they affect to fear. They claim now that there are even men who have been told off to kill Mr. Foster, but it is not likely that the chief of Dublin detectives would tell this to a reporter if it were really so.

At all events, Mr. Foster seems to take it coolly for I saw him swaggering along Grafton street this morning, going to the castle alone, with no murderer in sight, swinging an umbrella unconcernedly, and showing not the slightest desire to avoid attention. The remarkable precautions which the authorities are taking is evidence that they have some information which has not yet been revealed.

The chief danger they seem to apprehend is from attempts on buildings. Experiments have been made with dynamite in Ireland, and also months ago quantities of sand for extinguishing Greek fire, were piled up near the lord-lieutenant's and chief secretary's lodges and other places. The recommendations to the fire brigade by the council, already cabled you, have been carried out. Police in twos, threes and sixes file along the streets all night long, since the suppression of the League, and are especially frequent near public buildings. It is not, however, in Ireland that the government have the most to fear, but in England, and if they are to be credited with even an ordinary amount of acuteness, the precautions everywhere taken are really necessary. The government is now in a legal difficulty. The League rooms are vacant, but by legal advice the League have not given up the occupation of them. The government thus far are afraid to seize them, though they could do so if three of the members could be caught meeting there, but the remaining members are careful about this legal point. The authorities also are in a quandary about the United Ireland, but expect to have legal grounds to-morrow, for seizing it. The paper will come out, it is understood, without editorials, but since the League has been suppressed it will be difficult to avoid bringing itself under the penalty of the law.

London, 26.—A Dublin dispatch says the constabulary were instructed to warn persons against allowing Land League meetings in their houses. Every person attempting to hold a meeting will be immediately arrested.

Neill, organizer and paid secretary of the Cork branch of the Land League, has been arrested.

In the land court, Justice O'Hagan, replying to the League solicitor, said no evicted tenant would lose his rights.

Portland, Me., 26.—The mayor presided at an O'Connor Land League meeting in the city hall to-night.

Guineau.

Washington, 25.—Scoville, Guineau's counsel, occasioned much surprise, to-day, when he declined to raise the point of jurisdiction, the argument on which had been set for the 30th inst. It is stated, however, that the point is only reserved so as to be of more service to the accused. Should he be tried and convicted, a writ of habeas corpus will be taken and the plea of jurisdiction then raised. Should it then be decided that the district court was without jurisdiction, Scoville is then assured by very high legal authority that his client could not be tried in New Jersey, as that would be to put him in peril of his life the second time for the same offense. Should the argument be made before trial and Judge Cox decide that he had no jurisdiction, this chance for the life of Guineau would be lost.

Washington, 27.—In the criminal court to-day, an order was passed allowing 200 witnesses to be subpoenaed in behalf of Guineau, the fees and costs of service to be paid by government.

One Who Agrees.

New York, 27.—General Santo Domingo Vile, of the republic of Colombia said yesterday: I have read carefully the dispatch of Secretary Blaine to Minister Lowell, and if my interpretation of it is correct, I perfectly agree with it and think my government will.

Cable Clippings.

London, 26.—Lorillard has nominated the 2-year-old colt "Gerald" for the subscription stakes at Newmarket.

Eighteen hundred more French troops have arrived at Tunis.

The Persian government intends to confirm Ayob Kaha, probably at Teheran.

The Emperor and Empress of Brazil will soon visit Europe.

At Newmarket Lorillard's "Gerald" had a walk over for the subscription stakes.

King Humbert was enthusiastically received at Villach.

The Swedish bark Haknos, from Wolsigast for the United States, has been abandoned at sea. The captain, an officer and three men were drowned.

The Indian council will next week offer $400,000 worth of bills. It is said this is connected with exports of wheat from India, which are larger than those of any recent year. Strenuous efforts are making at Paris to prepare for the coming settlement. The authorities of Coutisse of course ordered the houses over which they have control, to pay in for security 100,000 francs each, which will form a fund of 8,000,000 francs.

The coronation of the Czar takes place in April next.

Brussels, 27.—The Bank of Belgium has raised the rate of discount to 5%.

Queensdown, 27.—The steamer Mis-souri, from Boston, lost 149 cattle.

London, 27.—Dr. Carrer won two more pigeon shooting matches yesterday.

The French ambassador at Vienna, who has been on furlough in France, has been requested to return to his post at once. He will arrive in Vienna in time to meet King Humbert.

The Daily News says of Secretary Blaine's circular: It will undoubtedly receive a friendly hearing, but as a piece of logic, cannot be regarded as very powerful.

King Humbert crossed the Austrian frontier at Pentle, on the way to Vienna.

A Berlin correspondent says Gambetta's reference to his visit to Germany is regarded here as leaving no doubt that he had an interview with Bismarck.

Berlin, 26.—Socialist election bills were jiggled into nearly every house in Munich on Sunday night.

King Humbert has left Monza on his way to Vienna.

New Stocks.

New York, 27.—The following stocks were listed by the Stock Exchange this morning: Gulf of Colorado and Santa Fe Railroad, first mortgage bonds, for $1,000 each; Texas and Pacific Railway, Rio Grande division, bonds, from No. 10,500 to 11,250, inclusive for $1,000 each; Robinson Consolidated Mining Company, capital stock, par value, $50, $10,000,000.

Democratic Clean Sweep.

Baltimore, 26.—Democrats, to-day, elected their entire ticket, the mayor, and every member of both branches of the city council. The total vote for councilman was under 38,000, regular democrats polling 23,600, independent democrats 5,400, and republicans less than 8,000.

Confederate Bonds.

Richmond, Va., 27.—The remarkable demand for confederate bonds continues, and the boom for these valueless promises to pay, is unabated. A leading banking house has already purchased nearly five millions coupon bonds, at from $8 to $5 per $1,000.
